STEPHENSON FACES

La Follette to Lead Opposition Against Colleague.

SITUATION MOST INTERESTING

Senators Divided on Question of Wisconsin Election, While Many CHOIR AIDS WORK FOR POOR Hold that Charges of Corruption Will Be Brought to Deprive Millionaire Member of His Seat.

There is a strong probability that the right of Isaac Stephenson to occupy a seat in the Senate from Wisconsin for six years from March 4, 1909, will be strongly contested.

There are three contingencies under which the issue may be made: First, the friends of Mr. Stephenson, including some of the abler lawyers among his colleagues in the Senate, hold to the view that he was duly elected on the first day programme furnished by St. Paul's sanc- the inauguration of 1994 have been reof the balloting, when he received the majority vote of all the legislators Ernest T. Winchester, organist and choir-

He failed to receive a majority of all him to receive such a majority.

Stephenson to Assert Right, tain the majority of all on a future joint | cl ing Senator Burrows, chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, and Senator Cummins, of Iowa. This claim will be openly resisted, and the Chorus—The Merry Miller" (Rob Roy)....de Koven The Chorus—The Chorus question will come before the Senate on Songs for tenor-

Mr. Stephenson obtains the certificate of Chorus-"Sweet and Lor Mr. Stephenson obtains the certificate of chorus—Sweet and Low cleetion, based on the fact that he received a majority of all the votes in the Mr. William Clabaugh. legislature. Charges of the corrupt use Chorusesof money to obtain his election at the (a) "Gloria in Excelsis" primaries have been made already, and made against his taking the oath, in an Song for tenor"Farewell to the King's Highway"."

This plan has already been agreed upon, and it is believed Senator La Fellette. colleague and former political ally of The choir is composed of the following: personally on the Senate floor.

may be joined will arise in the event that John Rhoades, Mortimer Carroll; first Mr. Stephenson is admitted to his seat trebles, Masters Joseph McGarraghy, Osover the protest against his taking the wald Lehmann, John Rhoades, Philip oath. In that case a resoution will be introduced, probably, by Senator La Follette Arthur Stillwell, Andrew McCullum, to declare the seat vacant on account of Tony Rivera, George Mattingly, Sylvester charges of the improper use of money by Giddens, Edwin Reed, George Giddens, Senator Stephenson to obtain his election. Franklin Howe, Clarence King, Ray-that has arisen in the Senate in many years. The primary election law of Wisconsin requires the publication of campaign expenditures within thirty days affectively. Masters Rudolph Bartle, second trebles, Masters Rudolph Bartle, ir., Mortimer Carroll, Charles Hall, Edward Roach, Daniel McCallum; bassos, Messrs, John M. Congell, Joseph Dunn, J.

primaries made public their expenditures shortly after the election. Mr. Stephenson has not yet disclosed to the public what he paid out in his campaign. He says he is not compelled to do so until says he i thirty days after the actual date of his election by the legislature.

He cites a precedent in the case of Senator La Follette, who was a candidate for President before the Wisconsin expense account until the last day allow-

Says He Is Not Corrupt,

"I have spent no money for corrupt purposes," said Mr. Stephenson yester-

"My statement of expenditures is pre- Lee, Miss R. Barrington, Mrs. A. Croppared, and has been for some time. I will per, Mrs. Lennox. not make it public until after I have been declared formally elected by the my election in which to publish it. I more than $190.000 for campaign expenses thrice reiterated "revenue" objection Satin the primaries to overcome the La urday:

until his election to the Senate.

STEPHENSON LOSES VOTES.

Wisconsin Senator Now Three Short on Joint Ballet.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 29.-Isaac Stephenson again failed of election to-day in the joint convention of the legislature. He received only 63 votes of the 131 cast, 66 being necessary to an election.

Assemblyman Hull introduced a joint resolution requesting Senator Stephenson to file an expense account at once The resolution was rejected, 74 to 25.

HOPKINS LEADERS CONFER.

Gov. Deneen Responds to Hurry Call in Final Effort.

Chicago, Jan. 29.—After trying all day banding her reservists. to regulate his badly scattered boom, Senator Hopkins to-night made an effort to secure a promise from Gov. Deneen that he will burn his bridges behind him and stake his political future on a last desperate attempt to whip the general assembly into line for the Sen-

The governor reached Chicago in the evening, in response to a hurry-up summons from the Hopkins managers. He was driven at once to the Union League Club, where, at 9 o'clock, a conference was begun, which continued until a late

Among those closeted with the governor were Senator Hopkins, Mayor Busse, Postmaster Campbell, and R. O. As a result of the conference, Mayor Busse will probable have some line of action to lay before a number of county Republican leaders, whom he will call together to-morrow in an effort to whip into line for Hopkins some of the legislators who persist in voting for Speaker Shurtleff and Representative political circles to-night that if no un derstanding was reached between Busse. Hopkins, and the governor, Deneen him self would join forces with Lorimer and come out as a candidate. Largest Morning Circulation.

Rev. Herbert K. Job Lectures Before Audubon Society.

"Bird life in the South" was the subject of a lecture given last evening at George Washington University by Rev Herbert K. Joh, before the annual gather ing of the Audubon Society of Washingyearly business meeting was held and. except the reports from the various committees, only routine matters were dis-cussed. Judge Job Barnard, president of the society, was in the chair, The lecture was illustrated by slides SAME AS LAST INAUGURATION taken by Rev. H. K. Job during his long stay in Dixie land, in the course of study of bird life.

Concert Given at Rauscher's by St. Paul's Singers.

Distinguished Audience Hears Fine Programme Directed by Organist Ernest T. Winchester.

tuary choir, under the leadership of Mr. adopted in their entirety.

The concert was given in ald of the enterprise to the task of handling the the votes in the legislature, and his op- Association of Perpetual Adoration and host of inaugural visitors follow. ponents hold under the Federal statute Work for Poor Churches. It afforded governing the case it was necessary for the patrons of that association and their In order to procure uniformity in the This question will become important laurels to the men and boys, and achieved must first meet with the approval of the hall was taxed to hold the crowd. Each by Thomas Campbell.

ballot. If he so falls, he will assert his right to the seat as the result of the first can be said without deprecating the law and approved by the inspector of buildings, who will then refuted the arguments of the visiting ardson, Barton W. Stone, Alexander day's balloting, when he obtained the beauty of his songs that he was not in issue a permit.

his best voice yesterday.

the construction of the Federal statute.

The second contingency will arise if

(c) "Home of Fadeless Beauty"......

Mr. M. Harry Stevens. Chorus—"Bridal Music from 'Rose Maiden' "...Cowen The Chotr.

Senator Stephenson, will make the protest Organist and choirmaster, Ernest T. ersonally on the Senate floor.

The third situation upon which the issue M. Connell: librarians, Arthur Stillwell, The situation is the most interesting mond King, Frank Meyers, Reany Kelly, All the other candidates before the Schultz, D. W. Carroll, At Lee, Joseph primaries made public their expenditures Ryder, J. Bryan Huyck, Daniel Hall;

The concert was given under the permit for a stand, and the applicants Laura Rogers, twenty-eight years old, at- auspices of the following patronesses and will be required to deposit $10 to cover tempted suicide by swallowing carbolic nomination. Its aim is to live the life ouco, Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan, Mrs. George primaries, but did not file his political Bliss, Mrs. George C. Reid, Mrs. D. P. Attention is called to section 104, build-expense account until the last day allow- McCartney, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. Rob- ing regulations, which prohibits the erecable under the statute, thirty days after ert Hinckley, Mrs. Henry May, Mrs. Rob- tion or placing of observation stands or Riggs, Mrs. Thomas F. Carter, Mrs. William M. Irwin, Miss Acosta, Mrs. Eugene Carr, Mrs. D. K. McCarthy, Mrs. S. Pescia, Mrs. Henley-Smith, Mrs. D. Brodhead, Mrs. A. Willert, Miss S.

OPIUM TRADE CENSURED.

"I have thirty days after the date of Ex-Senator Blair Writes Letter in Support of Lodge-Denby Bill. stand upon the claim that I was elected Ex-Senator Blair has written Congressat the first ballot taken in the legisla- man Mann, of Illinois, a letter urging early south side of Lafayette Square, to take dose of the poison. at the first ballot taken in the legislature. I have the authority of some of the ablest lawyers in the Senate to sustain which the following spicy paragraph rethe place of the sidewalk occupied by the ablest lawyers in the Senate to sustain

Little is known of Mrs. Rogers at the south side of Lalayette Square, Sixth street address. She engaged a reviewing stands during the coming inthe place of the sidewalk occupied by the ablest lawyers in the Senate to sustain

Application of the Lodge-Denby bill, in the place of the sidewalk occupied by the ablest lawyers in the Senate to sustain

Be used for the erection of a large of the sidewalk occupied by the reviewing stands during the coming inthe bright prospects, which promise better

The place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the reviewing stands during the coming inthe bright prospects, which promise better

The place of the sidewalk occupied by the
place of the sidewalk occupied by the reviewing stands during the coming inthe bright prospects, which promise better

The place of the sidewalk occupied by the
place of the sidewalk occupied by the reviewing stands during the coming inthe bright prospects, which promise better

The place of the sidewalk occupied by the
place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place of the sidewalk occupied by the place

He is nearly eighty years old and is initiative, and we have not failed to re- pants of the stores and their friends. They her mother attempted to end her life supposed to be the wealthiest man in mind Great Britain that she should be are limited in size and projection to such Wisconsin, his property being estimated as aggregating about $20,000,000. His for the sake of God and humanity. To them a financial advantage. Theey are ness and banking. He served two terms fall down now lest we lose a million therefore not built in competition with dent over marital troubles. in the House of Representatives years would look as though we had beams in the stands of the inaugural committee. ago, but had held no other political office both our own eyes and fully justify the old hypocrite in thanking God that he was not or is not like other men, especially not the Americans.

"It is a great opportunity to save ouras to do a good turn to humanity. "Truly and respectfully yours

"HENRY W. BLAIR.

Promotions in Colored Schools, A list of promotions of pupils from the eighth grade of the colored schools to the M Street High and Armstrong Manual Training schools, has been announced by the school board. The new classes will be formed February 1, Bulgaria Disbands Reservists. Constantinople, Jan. 29 .- The governo of Adrianople has telegraphed to the min-

> Assets, $13,274,828. Capital, $3,009,900

For the Convenience of Those in Government Service

The banking department will remain open until 5 o'clock on the 1st and 16th

Of the month. Interest paid on deposits subject to check.

AMERICAN SECURITY AND TRUST COMPANY

Northwest Corner of Fifteenth and Pennsylvania Ave. Charles J. Bell, President.

SET RIGID RULES

ton. Previous to the lecture the regular Commissioners Issue Order Governing Construction.

Framework Must Be Made Strong Houses Must He Supported-Shrubbery of Parking Amply Protected.

The erection of reviewing stands by private interests for the purpose of observing the inaugural parade has been placed under restrictions and regulations by the Commissioners, in conformity with the joint resolution passed by Congress. They are not to be a burden to the property owner, nor do they allow en-A distinguished audience gathered at croachment upon the interest of the pub-Rauscher's yesterday to hear the musical lic at large. The regulations enforced at The regulations upon which the District fixes its hope of adjusting private friends an excellent opportunity to hear scheme of decorating Pennsylvania aveonly in case Mr. Stephenson fails to ob- another triumph for the leader of the chairman on parks and reviewing, after Mr. Harry Stevens' tenor was heard to which drawings showing construction

Seek for Uniformity.

No construction work on stands shall In this view he will be sustained by Mr. William Claubaugh's singing of be started before February 20, and all a few yells that checked the speaker was a preacher in a small town in Ken- of the most valuable pieces of business many able lawyers in the Senate, includ- "The Rosary" brought forth a hearty work, including decoration, shall be completed on or before March 1, or permit dered removed within twenty-four hours. navy should be adopted by Congress." Stands to be removed, all materials and lebris removed from streets, and any damage to public property repaired by the time specified, the work will be done under the direction of the inspector of Carter, alternate. buildings, and cost of same deducted In refutation from deposit made by applicant for stand.

Eight Feet the Limit. The projection from building line is not to exceed eight feet, six inches, and clear space of eight feet raust be preserved between the pavement and under side of platform supports and braces.

The bottom sills or plates shall be beveled each way where they cross the pavements and all uprights or posts will be and members of the faculty of Central secured to the slil with fron knees. No High. cross bracing to posts will be permitted, except against the building.

In Fifteenth street, between Pennsylvania avenue and New York avenue, and in Pennsylvania avenue, between shall be erected to extend farther from the building line than the present project tions on the building where the stand is Balconies to Be Supported.

as directed by the inspector of buildings. No stand or balcony shall be occupied until the inspector of buildings shall

A fee of $1 shall be charged for each board of managers: Mme. Jusserand, Baroness Mayor des Planches, Mme. Naerty.

Attention is called to section 104, buildert Potts, Mrs. William K. Carr, Miss platforms upon the roof of any building. No stand or structure shall be used for advertising purposes.

lations shall be liable for each offense

Reserves a Foot Walk.

ments be made for a footwalk on the say the woman swallowed only a small rect principles which he believed Christ government. Inquiry at would have for the foundation of any ited no direct information.

sixty and seventy of these stands were "So far, our government has taken the erected for the use of owners or occu- who was in the parlor of the house when Twelve Feet on Avenue.

A sidewalk space of twelve feet has ordinarily been reserved on Pennsylvania Members Engage in General Debate avenue on the south side of Lafayette selves from a national disgrace, as well Square, and if the entire square is allowed for the use of stands it is recommended Ashford's recommendations of four years ago, that a temporary rail be placed on the roadway of Pennsylvania avenue, and for the protection of the grass and shrubbery which otherwise might be trampled upon or damaged.

RECEIVERS FOR BIG STORE.

Crouse Brothers, Norfolk, Forced Into Bankruptey.

cial to The Washington Herald. Norfolk, Va., Jan. 29.—Crouse Bros., tended for jury trials in lunacy proceed-Inc., operating the Columbia, a big cloth- ings in the District of Columbia, while ing and furnishing store, in Granby street, were made defendants in involuntary bankruptcy proceedings in the United States Court this morning.

Morris were named by Judge Waddill as restraining injunctions by the Federal receivers for the concern under a joint bond of $10,000. It is alleged that the defendants admitted their inability to pay their debts. Petitioning creditors in th case are from Baltimore, New York and Chicago. The assets and liabilities of the concern are unknown.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

A concert was given last night in Stanler Hall by the United States Soldiers' Home Band Director Zimmermann arranged the musical pro-

A coroner's jury, over the body of A Burns, a negro laborer, who was killed by a prema-ture explosion of dynamite while working near the Chain Bridge, yesterday returned a verdict that he came to his death as the result of an accident. The Garfield Memorial Association has just been incorporated under the laws of New Jersey for the purpose of erecting a monument as a memorial to President Garfield at Ocean Park, Long Branch, N. J., at which place Presid

Only One "BROMO QUININE"
That is LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE. Look for the signature of E. W. GEOVE. Used the World over to Cure a Cold in One Day. Ze.

OYSTER ROAST HELD.

Grand Army Veterans Spent Enjoyable Evening.

The Veterans' Grand Army Oyster Roast Association held its monthly supper in Coldenstroth's last evening. Although inclement weather precluded the attendance of many, the event was enjoyed by a spirited company of "oldsters." The president of the association is Col. W. H. D. Balley, the secretary Col. E. Douglass King, the chaplain Homer Riggs. Among those present were C. Dougherty, George R. McNeir, Dr. Thomas Calver, B. F. Graham, L. H. Patterson, S. P. Patterson, and F. R. Sparks. Speeches and Safe and Approved by Inspec-tor of Buildings - Balconies in CENTRAL HIGH WINS DEBATE

Is Awarded Victory Over Baltimore City College.

Eloquence of Young Speakers Received with Cheers-President's Plan for Larger Navy Subject.

navy should be adopted by Congress was ber of short addresses by several pastween Central High School and a team made since its founding. from Baltimore City College. Central against It The debate was held in the assembly peint made by the speakers was heartily applauded, and when the star debater

The question in debate was: "Resolved. will be revoked and the structure or- That the President's plan for a larger Mr. Wilson, for the affirmative side, opened with a short, concise outline of the facts. His team mates were H. W. Should the owner refuse or neglect to Hodgkins, U. F. Rosen, with J. W. Follin, remove a stand that has been condemned, alternate. The visiting team was comor to clear away any material within prised of Littleton Smith, S. B. Frelechoff. C. W. Lindsay, and Paul O.

> by Hodgkins, Lindsay, Rosen, Smith, and was founded, and said that "where the Wilson, in the order named The judges were Hon. E. Dana Durand Deputy Commissioner of Corporations, Department of Commerce and Labor; Actorney Daniel W. O'Donoghue, and Attorney William H. Singleton, The debate was followed by an informal banquet tendered the visiting debaters

WOMAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Mrs. Laura Rogers, Despondent, Swallows Carbolic Acid.

Existing balconies must be re-enforced Takes Only Small Amount of the tament. Poison, and Life Is Saved at the Hospital.

> While suffering from melancholia, Mrs. night. William Windsor, proprietor of of the church of which Alexander Camp- the ground will be used for the erection the lodging-house, heard Mrs. Rogers bell was pastor, gave a very interesting of a large hotel by New York parties, the lodging-house, heard Mrs. Rogers account of her recollections of the Camp-whose plans were frustrated by the groaning. He knocked at the door of the bells. During the discourse she said:
>
> Southern Commercial Congress getting in room she occupied, but receiving ao response, opened the door with a skeleton fast, and will continue to decrease as there is touch

Mrs Rogers was lying on the bed, evi-Court of said District, and in default of partly filled with carbolic acid, was payment thereof to imprisonment in the found on the floor near the bed. Mrs.

At the inauguration of 1904 between husband is supposed to be living. The results in the future than those obtained woman was accompanied by a daughter, in the past. Miss Rogers declined to be seen by a re-

MANY SUBJECTS IN HOUSE.

on Panama, Tariff, &c.

Although the House had the military appropriation bill under consideration yes: in accordance with Building Inspector terday, almost every other subject was mentioned in the debate that ensued. A discussion of affairs in Panama was precipitated by the reading of letters that a board walk be built at the back of from Charles P. Taft and William Nelson the stand in lieu of the sidewalk, and also Cromwell, denying in the most emphatic resentative Rainey, of Illinois, that Taft ested in a syndicate that planned to exploit the timber resources on the isthmus. life. Representative Perkins, of New York. Th in a long speech, urged that the tariff be revised downward.

Representative Clark, of Florida, con Representative John Wesley Gaines, of Tennessee, denounced the powder trust. Representative Jenkins, the Committee on the Judiciary, argued against the constitutionality of pending Attorneys Henry Bowden and Arthur J. bills aimed to restrict the issuance of Further extension of irrigation projects in the West was advocated by Representative Reeder, of Kansas,

FOR 6 in the Back

If you have a weak, aching back, or sharp, piercing pains, rub your-self at night with Omega Oil, and often the pain will be gone in the morning. The Oil penetrates through the pores of the skin and goes direct to the seat of the trouble.

SPEAKERS PRAISE GROWTH OF CHURCH

Gathering Marks Centennial of Christian Order.

HOMAGE IS PAID FOUNDERS

History of the Movement During Past Hundred Years Is Told Elequently-Four Men Stand Pre-eminent as Pioneers in Work-Bright Prospects Await Present Members,

For the purpose of paying homage to whom belongs the credit for founding the Christian Church, a large number of people gathered at the Vermont Avenue Church last evening to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the denomina-

The programme, in charge of the pas-That the President's plan for a larger tor, Rev. J. D. Power, included a numthe decision reached last evening by the tors of the city, who spoke on the life judges in an interscholastic debate be- of the church, its origin, and the progress

The first speaker of the evening was High, advocating a larger navy, was given Rev. George Miller, of the Ninth Street the decision by a narrow margin, two Christian Church, who chose for his subof the judges being in favor and one ject, "Our Church." He gave an interesting account of the beginning of the Restoration period, as it is called, which n concert the choisters, it brought new nue, the decorative features of all stands hall of Central High School. The large began with the founding of the church

The Birth of the Church,

He said there are four men who stand REALTY DEAL BREAKS BROWNSVILLE BILL SETTLED. team in a final burst of elequence, the Campbell, and his son, Thomas Campbell. followers of the blue and white let loose Continuing, he said that Barton W. Stone tucky early in the nineteenth century. He property available for a large building Brownsville controversy and the eventual was a Presbyterian minister, who was enterprise in the city of Washington. tried for heresy. He afterward left the in 1762. His father was a Roman Catholic, but he chose the Presbyterian faith. He preached in the churches of his native country for some time, and in The deal is the largest and one of the the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of the pay will date from the time of their distance of the pay will date from the time of the pay will date from the In refutation, Frelechoff led. followed ciples upon which the Christian Church Bible speaks the church should speak, and where it is silent they should re-to America. The elder Campbell was a great teacher, public man, and speaker who succeeded in gaining the reputation of a great man. He stood for good and sound principles, and before his death was a bishop in the town of Bethany, the pu

Two Faiths Were United.

In 1832 the movement started by Barton W. Stone and his followers and the one ounded by Thomas Campbell were combined at a conference at Lexington, Ky., and decided that henceforth they would

Since that time the Christian Church are the has continued to grow, until to-day it Small's flower store, on the opposite corhas a membership in this country of ner of Fourteenth and G streets. more than a million and a half members. This church, though it follows out the baptism which is a part of the Baptist acid in her room, at 1002 Sixth street the disciples lived in the New Testament. northwest, shortly after 9 o'clock last Mrs. W. H. Shadd, who was a member field yesterday. One of the stories that long as the church does not keep in touch with the Holy One of Bethlehem. She was removed to the Emergency that this church, which has grown in the in the near future, to be ready for ec-Engineer Commissioner Cosby makes the Hospital in an ambulance, but was able further recommendation that arrange- to go home unassisted later. Physicians

HOLD GRADUATION EXERCISES

Business High School Has a Class of Forty-seven.

Addresses, Music, and Dance Inspire Red Carnations Worn by President Future Business Men to Great Deeds.

Appropriate exercises for the mid-year graduating class at Business High School were held last night, the large assembly terms the charge recently made by Rep- hall being barely large enough to accommodate the spectators, friends, and relaand Cromwell, with others, were inter- tives of the young people who have prepared so carefully for a future business

> The hall was tastefully decorated, the the closest friends of the late President platform being a mass of carnations and carnations were brought into the Senate roses. Uniformed cadets acted as ushers, chamber and distributed by the chief A dance was held after the ceremonies. page. Music was furnished by the McKinley Manual Training School orchestra.

> The faculty address was given by Allan Davis, principal of the school, who paid Senate Disposes of Omnibus Measure a glowing tribute to the class. The programme was as follows: Address of welcome, James J. Keane; class history, Adelaide Dean; class prophecies, section passed the omnibus claims bill, contain-254, W. R. Lamar; section 454, George ing provisions for the liquidation of hun-Dement; section 654, Albert Welchee; ad- dreds of claims against the United States dress to the undergraduates, F. G. Sin- dating back to 1801, ourse and will receive their diplomas claims over until the next session Abe Barnhart, Leonard Butt, Courtland E. Chris ani, George E. Dement, William Donohue, Elmer Frazier, Frank L. Gillam, Wesley Gray, Willard S. France, Frank L. Guinan, Wesley Gray, Willard H. Honey, Frank Hunter, James J. Keane, William R. Lamer, Thomas F. McCarthy, Robert K. Middle-kauff, Karl T. Plitt, John R. Pyles, Philip S. Regan, Fred G. Sinchair, Edward M. Sauer, James E. Taylor, Charles A. Welcker, and Jerome H.

Katharine V. Agnew, Elsie M. Barbour, Nellye K. Belt, Helen L. Brdd, Violet L. Cozen, Bessie T. Ook, Adelaide Dean, Sarah E. Garvey, Alice L. Jodron, Rosa M. Guilford, Augusta L. Honso, Mary Godren, Rosa M. Gillieri, Augusta L. Honse, Mary E. Hester, Anne Johnson, Lorine E. Keiler, Louise K. Lowrey, Julie Lix, Carrie A. Moore, Grace M. Meirer, Charlotte L. Pemberton, Ruth C. Fritte, Frances A. Tyndall, Catherine C. Sengstack, Hattie C. Sheaffer, Blanche C. Triebler, and Louise A.

Largest Morning Circulation.

THE PALAIS ROYAL.

Don't let to-day pass without buying one or more emergency umbrellas.

Price, 97c

This is a special price for to-day only. Sale on first floor at Eleventh

Week-end Sale

Ladies' Black and Fancy Lisle Hose; 25c 50c values. Ladies' Australian Wool and Silk Mixed Vests, Pants, Tights, &c.; $1.50 98c

Ladies' and Men's Oneita Suits; also Vests, Pants, Union Suits, and Tights; 98e 49c Ladies' and Children's Fleeced Vests and Pants; also Children's Union Suits and Sleeping Garments; 25c and 35c values. 19c

The Palais Royal, GSt., 11th St.

Continued from Page One. advantage of the opportunity to buy one

Neither Mr. Hutchins nor Mr. Dante who were discharged from the Twentychurch and started a movement upon is yet ready to announce the purpose to fifth Infantry without honor in 1906. which the Christian Church was founded. which the property will be put, the A new bill offered by Senator Aldrich Thomas Campbell was born in Ireland answer to inquiry being that the purchase and accepted as a substitute for all other was made for investment purposes. get back, and upon re-enlistment their Largest Deal of Year.

The deal is the largest and one of the pay will date from the time of their diswas given a church in Washington, Pa. many months, and establishes the record bill: He originated the great fundamental prin- so far for the year 1909. It is understood that the price paid for lot 14, at the cor- authorized to appoint a court of inquiry ner of Fourteenth and G streets, was to consist of five officers of the United $65 a square foot, and that $35 a square States army not below the rank of colofoot was paid for the inside lots. Lot 14 nel, which court shall be organized to Shortly after this Alexander Campbell, contains 4,618 square feet, and the inside hear and report upon all charges and father of Thomas Campbell, then living lots contain 19.742 square feet. The value testimony relating to the shooting affray in Ireland, left that country and came of the improvements is not large, and which took place at Brownsville, Tex., the prices named may be considered on the night of August 13, 1906. Said court practically as the value of the ground shall within one year from the date of the property is occupied with one-story reports to the Secretary of War of the rebrick structures, built many years ago sults of such inquiry. and more or less temporary in character. On the Fourteenth street frontage the his own, and will ask for a vote next buildings are occupied by H. L. Rust, real estate offices; Velati's candy store, L. S. Lipscomb & Co., real estate offices and subtenants in the same building; the between the Senators holding different To-Kalon Wine Company; Costinett Taicall themselves the Christian Disciples of loring Company, Dunbar & Co.'s cigar Christ, and that they would stand upon store, Walter A. Brown, real estate of the principles laid down in the New Tes-fices, and the Copenharver stationery store. On the Fourteenth street front house and storage rooms of J. Henry Rumors Regarding Sale. Speculation is rife as to what disposition will be made of the property, and several rumors are current about the Southern Commercial Congress getting in "The creeds are dying to-day, dying ahead in the possession of the St. Mat-intended to build the hotel. This is She was followed by Rev. Walter Smith, largely conjecture, and persons in a posi-He gave a very interesting ac- Another rumor connects the sale of the workhouse of said District for not longer Rogers was clothed in a house gown. count of the principles upon which the property with P. B. Chase, and the new than sixty days.

Inquiry at this point elic-

The facts are the purchaser is at present reticent regarding his purchase, and the trustees, if they know the facts, are equally so. Probably when the deal is mpleted it will be seen that the property has been bought solely for investment, to be sold later to some person or persons who have in mind the of some large permanent structure that will yield a larger income than the buildings at present on the lots. TRIBUTE TO McKINLEY.

and Members of Congress. The anniversary of the birth of William McKinley was fittingly observed in Washington yesterday. It has come to be known as Carnation Day.

ARNER-On Thursday, January 28, 1909, President Roosevelt wore a red carna. tion in the lanel of his coat, as did Vice President Fairbanks and Speaker Cannon Nearly every member of the Senate, and many members of the House, also, were

Senator Scott, of West Virginia, two of

At the suggestion of Mr. Fairbanks and CLAIMS BILL PASSED.

After Two Days' Discussion. After two days of continual consideration, the Senate late yesterday afternoon lair; reply to address to undergraduates. In pursuance of its policy to cut down K. Kritch; class poem, E. F. Frazier; the expenses of the government, the lead-vocal selection, Peter Becker, and vale- ers of the Senate opposed many amenddictory, Elsie Barbour. ments proposed Thursday and yesterday, The following have completed their and by decisive votes referred many

> While you think of it, telepho Want Ad. to The Washington Herald, and bill will be sent you at I cent a word.

Chabanne's White Bordeaux Wines.

-Sauterne, $8 doz.; Haut Sauterne, $12 doz.; Graves, $8.50 doz.; Barsac.

Christian Xander's House Phone M. 24 No branch houses 909 7th St. N. W.

Senate Will End Controversy Next

Wednesday. All the ways were smoothed in the Senate yesterday for settlement of the restoration to duty of deserving soldiers bills, provides a means for the men to

"That the Secretary of War is hereby its appointment make a final report, and With the exception of three buildings, from time to time shall make partial Senator Foraker was prepared to ac-Wednesday at 4 o'clock.

The compromise was the result of an understanding made outside the Senate opinions, and it is known that the understanding is shared in by the President.

DIED. ASHFORD—On Wednesday, January 27, 1909, at 6:39 p. m., MARK.P., beloved son of the late John T. and Margaret V. Ashford and husband of Edith

Funeral from the residence of his mother, 609 E street southeast, Saturday morning, January 30, at 11 o'clock. Interment in Bethel Cemetery, Alexandria, Va. COLLINS-The remains of THOMAS

COLLINS, which were placed in a vault at Mount Olivet Cemetery, will be interred Saturday, January 39, at OX-On Thursday, January 28, 1909, 2:18 a. m., at Sibley Hospital, CARO-LINE R. COX, widow of J. W. Cox. Funeral from her late residence, 614 G street northwest, Sunday, January 31, at 3 p. m., thence to Wesley Chapel, Fifth and F streets northwest. Re tives and friends invited to attend.

IARRISON-On Thursday, January 28 1909, MOLLIE E., widow of James H Funeral from the residence of her sis-ter-in-law, Mrs. Alice L. Davis, 455 H street southwest, on Saturday, January 30, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. (Baltimore, Md., papers please copy.)

pers please copy.)

KIEFER—On Thursday, January 28, 1909, at 9:30 a. m., CONRAD, beloved husband of Rosa Kiefer, aged eighty years and two months.

Funeral from his late residence, 321

Fifth street northwest, on Saturday, January 30, at 9 o'clock. Requiem mass at St. Mary's Church at 9:30 a. m. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. Please omit flowers. to attend. Please omit flowers.

KINSEY—Suddenly on Wednesday, Jan-uary 27, 1899, at Columbia, S. C., S. KIBBEY KINSEY, daughter of the late Benjamin S. and Elizabeth Kin-Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral services at Ashley apartment, Eighteenth and V streets northwest, on Saturday, January 30, at 2 p. m. Interment private, LANCASTER—On Friday morning, Jan-uary 29, 1909, ANNIE ELLIOT, wife of Henry C. Lancester. Funeral services at St. Aloysius' Church Monday morning, February 1, at 10 o'clock, Friends invited. Interment private.

at 2:55 p. m., at her home, in Balti-more, Md., STELLA MAY, daughter of Mary C. and the late Jacob G. Larner.
Funeral from the residence in Baltimore on Saturday, January 30, 1909, at 2 PRICE-On Friday, January 29, 1909, at

PRICE—On Friday, January 29, 1999, at S:45 a. m., at his home, CHARLES P. PRICE, beloved husband of Mrs. Virginia McFarland Price.

Funeral from the Del Ray M. E. Church South, Alexandria County, Va., Sunday, January 31, at 2:39 p. m. Interment in Ivy Hill Cemetery, Va. VEIHMEYER-On Friday, January 29, 1969 at his residence, 1104 Seventh EIHMEYER—On Friday, January 29, 1999, at his residence, 1604 Seventh street northeast, J. ERNEST VEHMEYER, beloved husband of Alice R. Veihmeyer and eldest son of John F. and Mary E. Veihmeyer.

Funeral from his late residence Monday, February 1, at 2 o'clock. Interment at Glenwood Cemetery. (Baltimere arrors place conv.)

FUNERAL DIRECTORS.

more papers please copy.)

GEORGE P. ZURHORST, 301 East Capitol Street.

FUNERAL DESIGNS.

AND MOST REASONABLY PRICED FUNERAL DESIGNS

735 14TH ST., Corner H. 'Phone M. 6953, Branch, 18th & U N. W. FUNERAL FLOWERS.

From MARCHE & CO.,

G U D E , PHONE M 623 1214 F ST. NORTHWEST GEO. C. STAFFER, FLORAL DESIGNS; REASONABLE PRICES.

'Phone 246 Main, 18th and Eye sta ne.

WILLIAM LEE, Funeral Director And Embalmer. Livery in connection. Commod Chapel and Modern Creamforium. Modest pri 333 Pennsylvania ave. nw. Telepance Main 1385.